GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Philadelphia to Present Grant with $100,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4.—A fund of one hundred thousand dollars has been raised in this city and will be presented to Grant in a short time. The project originated with one or two of Grant's personal friends who think his present income not sufficient to support him in a style worthy of an ex-president. John M. Forbes and other wealthy men were applied to when the object was first stated, all but the New York Times ex-presidential fund got the start and so Grant's friends here thrown upon their own resources. The Philadelphia fund is exclusively for the use of Grant. It was stated to-day by one of the most intimate of the general's friends that the money had all been raised and was deposited in bank. He also said in refusing to give the names of the subscribers, the money had been given by both republicans and democrats. Within a few days according to the programme Grant will be invited here and [illegible] thousand dollars will be presented to him.

The Jews in Germany.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The Inter Ocean has interviews with prominent Jews on the persecution of Jews in Germany and finds concurrence in the following views: The Jews are economical and thrifty in Germany as elsewhere and have suffered less from financial depression which now distracts that country than other class of German citizens. After the Franco-Prussian war the country went wild on speculation. The Jews were more conservative and when the crash came were better prepared to weather the storm and consequently recovered quickly. This provoked jealousy and hostility of the German people, who truly claimed that the Jews nearly monopolized the commerce and finance of the country. They were also found to occupy the first places in literature and learning, and on this account too there was jealousy, which the government covertly fostered. The government's policy is to divert by this means the attention of socialists from their demonstrations against the throne. The interviewed Jews here say that the Jews in this country can do nothing in the premises but that action if any, must come from the Christians who should and surely will protest in the name of all that is fair, just and manly in the 19th century.

Land League Organized at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The land league organized to-day with M. E. Stone as president is an outgrowth of Sunday's meeting and its purpose is to aid in extending land agitation in Ireland, and in defending its opponents who are brought to trial.

The Chicago Saengerfest.

Arrangements are being made on a grand scale for the saengerfest or saengerbund which is to hold its next festival in Chicago next June. Thousands of singers are to be present and perhaps hundreds of thousands of visitors.

Protest against Bogus Butter.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—This afternoon a number of dealers in butter had a conference with the purpose of protecting the trade against adulterated butter compounds, which are at present flooding the market. Recent exposures of the villainous compounds which are manufactured and sold as butter have seriously damaged the business and rendered some action necessary. The only feasible plan suggested was that dealers in the bogus article be compelled to sell it under its appropriate name. The last legislature passed a law requiring this to be done.

No New Developments.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A Times' Washington dispatch says Kenny Davenport still lingers here as mysterious as ever. Electrotype plates are being made for the work of certain letters captured by the recent committee. It is generally understood that exposures to be made will come through the publication of these fac similes.

Hewitt Comes Forward with Regrets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Abram S. Hewitt, in a letter to the editor of the Nation, defends himself against what he terms "the extra judicial attack" of Judge [illegible], and says he believed the Morey letter genuine, [illegible] decided to refer to it in his speech, accordingly he did so, in what he then regarded and still regards as cautious language. If he formed a wrong judgment, he must accept the censure due to a national discretion. The letter concludes: "This statement, I submit my conduct to the judgment of your readers, but not without expressing the deep regret which I feel that any such chance should have brought me [illegible] opinion was asked in regard to the authenticity of a letter, which so far as I was concerned was a matter of profound indifference, and [illegible] to which I never supposed any consequences could arise. This regret is intensified [illegible] that I, rather than Gen. Garfield, have been the victim of the forgery, for he has, notwithstanding it, been elected president while I have had the [illegible] experience of denunciation from the judge in a case in which I was not a party, in which I had no hearing. The judge seemed to consider me as a witness with the alleged criminal. I have [illegible] reason than Gen. Garfield to hunt the forger down and to insist that due punishment shall be meted out to those who have violated law."

Philp and his Crowd Indicted.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The grand jury to-day indicted [illegible] Louis Post, Kenward Philp and Chas. [illegible] for criminal libel on Garfield; [illegible] Morey for perjury.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The indictments against Philp and [illegible] Post, charged, the first named for and the others for publishing on the 2d of [illegible] an editorial headed "Lying and Sticking to it," in the Truth newspaper, and also publishing the so-called Chinese letter and a fac-simile of it, by these means did awfully, wickedly and maliciously [illegible] as much as in them lay to injure and vilify James A. Garfield and to bring him into ridicule and disgrace, and to deprive him of public confidence, credit and reputation, and to the great damage and injury of James A. Garfield and [illegible] of the people of the state of New York and their dignity. These parties are charged with [illegible] libel, the penalty of which is one year in the penitentiary and $250 fine. Bail was [illegible]. After examination by Judge Davis, Philp, Post and Hart came to the district attorney's office in the afternoon to give bail, but [illegible] had gone home and they were permitted to go on their own responsibility till to-morrow [illegible] when they will furnish the necessary bail. It is probable now that Morey has been indicted for perjury, he will be removed from the [illegible] of detention to the Toombs. All indicted, it is said, will be arraigned in the court of general sessions on Monday.

[illegible] View of the Panama Canal Scheme.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Wm. Seligman, a member of the Panama Canal syndicate, said to the Herald's correspondent yesterday: "We made it a condition of our participation in the affair and obtained the guarantee, that an American directorate [illegible] should be appointed. So far as we know the people of the United States will be found [illegible] to have the largest quantity of stock [illegible]. Confident that the goods and passenger traffic of the Panama Canal will be four or five times that of the Suez, and that in ten years the shares issued at one hundred dollars will be worth from six to eight hundred."

Failure.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The failure is announced of [illegible] & Sons, piano manufacturers, with liabilities [illegible].

Died.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—Among deaths yesterday were [illegible], for a long time leader of the seventh regiment band, and Claude Pelletier one of the members of the French assembly banished by [illegible] to prepare for the coup d'etat.

The Blockade Broken.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Baltimore & Ohio Railroad [illegible] announce that they will receive [illegible] freight of the New Jersey Central Railroad [illegible] points.

New Route of Travel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The new Baltimore & Ohio [illegible] day by the departure of three trains [illegible] after run daily to principal western [illegible].

Death of an old Mariner.

[illegible], Dec. 2.—Captain Frederick G. Cameron, [illegible] the ship Macedonia which sailed [illegible] with provisions and supplies for the sufferers of Ireland in 1846, is dead. [illegible] also commanded the ship Robert [illegible], the vessel that sailed for San Francisco [illegible] class passengers.

Not a Candidate for Office.

[illegible], Dec. 1.—A Herald's special says that [illegible] has stated especially that he is not a candidate for office but will retire permanently to [illegible] at Fremont.

American Legal Talent to the Land Leaguers.

[illegible], Dec. 3.—Land League people here have [illegible] to Parnell asking if American counsel would be sent to Ireland to defend land leaguers. Parnell sends a favorable response and [illegible] of this lawyers will be dispatched to Ireland. Among those suggested are Jere Black, [illegible], Emery A. Storr and Matt Carpenter.

"Come to the Scratch."

[illegible], Dec. 4.—A duel which was to have been fought between Lawrence Trimble and John Benton, [illegible], Ky., was thwarted by the non appearance of Benton. Trimble accompanied by W. N. [illegible] of Covington, was at Niagara Falls, but the Benton party did not arrive.

Indians going to Washington.

[illegible], Dec. 2.—A Creek delegation is here en route to Washington to work for [illegible] and to oppose the settlement of whites in Okla[illegible].

The Missouri-Pacific System.

[illegible], Dec. 2.—When the Missouri extension of the [illegible], Kansas and Texas road is finished, [illegible] lines now [illegible] system will embrace about 4,500 [illegible].

Corn Corner at St. Louis

[illegible], Dec. 4.—A [illegible] is [illegible] expected to run the price [illegible].

Body-snatching

[illegible], Dec. 2.—Two bodies [illegible].

Proposed Cotton Exposition

[illegible], Dec. 2.—This afternoon an International Cotton Exposition Association was organized with [illegible] B. Brown of Georgia president and [illegible] vice presidents from the principal [illegible] cotton growing towns of the country. The plan is to make a grand international exposition [illegible] appliances and machinery.

Justice by Mob

[illegible], Tenn., Dec. 4.—Dan Smith, colored, [illegible] to ravish a young white girl [illegible] and was sentenced to [illegible] years in the [illegible] to-day for assault with intent to kill. [illegible] the verdict was returned a mob rushed into the court room, overpowered the sheriff and [illegible] Smith, dragged him to the street where [illegible].

[illegible] the [illegible] was committed by [illegible].

A Cruel Story.

[illegible], Dec. [illegible].—An Inter Ocean's special from New York [illegible] Robert B. Bedell, a great [illegible] railway [illegible] who married [illegible] wife in 1867 [illegible] formed against him by his friend A. J. Murray, while [illegible] was his wife's intimate friend [illegible] him of his money. Under the [illegible] wife secured a divorce and alimony [illegible] Bedell was one day in July 1877 set upon by A. J. Murray, Jr., Chauncey Bernard and [illegible] was stationed at [illegible] held by two of them and beaten in the face with a rawhide by the other with the apparent intent of destroying his eyesight. He only freed himself by getting his hand on his revolver. His assailants then fled but one of them attempted to shoot him as he ran. He was too quick however and brought him to the ground for which he was afterwards [illegible] in court. His wife had at first left him [illegible] taking away valuable securities from the safe worth $100,000. It seems to be a case of too many relatives in the house all of whom assisted in making trouble. Bedell has been a very [illegible] business man and is highly esteemed.

Foreign Gold.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Bank presidents say that there are $55,000,000 in the assay office in foreign gold, which will reach $62,000,000 by the latter part of next week. Twelve millions being en route.

European Steamers Overdue at New York

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The long delays in the arrival of ocean steamers is seriously embarrassing some lines which have not enough steamers to sail on schedule time. There are eighteen steamers overdue belonging to every line except the White Star. One steamer is nine and another eight days overdue.

Troubles Avoided.

A Tribune editorial pertinently says: If the electoral vote had been at all close then there would have been three chances for a row. First—Defeat of the California elector which would have been set down to republican partisan zeal. Next, defeat of the Indiana elector which the democratic canvassing board would certainly have accomplished if the vote would have made a difference and thirdly the stupid failure of the Georgia electoral college to vote on the day appointed. The occurrence of these blunders likely to be repeated under our complicated system every four years should teach congress the necessity of amending the method of electing the president so that the escape from a revolution every four years may not be considered a signal mark of divine mercy.

Vanderbilt's Operations.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The Graphic says Vanderbilt has entered into an understanding with five of the heaviest holders of Chicago, Burlington and Quincy stock that he shall buy $5,000,000 worth of shares, and this understanding contains a further stipulation that the investment shall be permanent and it shall be given representation in the next board of directors—contingent however upon the execution of the scheme projected by Jay Gould. A similar understanding exists between Vanderbilt and the heaviest holders of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe. Vanderbilt does not care to enter the direction of these lines unless it shall be necessary as measures of defense against the hostile combination of Gould.

Fatal Explosion.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—John Ford and Charles Burns were killed by an explosion of gas at 41st street and Seventh avenue.

Dividend.

Northwestern railway stockholders have declared the usual 3 per cent semi annual dividend.

The Oil Can Again.

DETROIT, Dec. 4.—Wilhelmina Shindler, a servant girl, ignited a slow fire with kerosene and succeeded in setting herself on fire. When found she was a mass of flame. After a few hours terrible agony she died.

Protecting the Negro.

RICHMOND, Dec. 2.—Three judges of election of the city of Manchester have been arrested for refusing to take the vote of colored persons who showed capitation receipts according to law.

Railroad Improvement.

DENVER, Dec. 4.—It is rumored here that the Denver and Rio Grande railway will, as soon as iron can be produced, commence laying a third rail on the Denver and Pueblo, with a view of running Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe cars through to Denver without transfer. The additional rail, it is understood, can be laid on the present ties. In the meantime hoisting machinery will be erected at Pueblo for the purpose of changing the Santa Fe freight cars to Rio Grande trucks.

A Villainous Crime Avenged

A Tribune's special says Dr. C. A. Washington was hung by a mob at Otero, New Mexico, Thursday night. He had treated a dining room girl at a hotel who died Wednesday, stating before death that he had chloroformed her and taken improper liberties.

Bullion Shipments from Leadville

LEADVILLE, Dec. 4.—Bullion shipments from Leadville smelters for the month of November, aggregate a value of $1,032,600, which show a decrease from shipments of the last two months but there has been a large increase of ore reserves at smelters accumulated during the month.

The Poncas Win.

OMAHA, Dec. 4.—Judge Dundy decided to-day that the Poncas have a legal right to the possession of the reservation from which they were expelled. The case is the first recorded where one Indian tribe sued another in the U. S. courts.

Good Times at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Clearance for the week, $61,151,000, being 17 millions greater than for any previous week. Much of the increase is due to a heavy movement in produce and provisions, particularly the latter, but a much larger proportion on account of activity in every industry and to the continuance and growth of business in the northwest. Similar reports of prosperity come from all sections of the country which is tributary to Chicago and there is universal encouragement at the prospects of the future. Farmers are now confident of getting good prices for their magnificent crops and are giving an impetus to all other branches of business.

Stoppage of Work at Philadelphia Mines.

POTTSVILLE, Dec. 4.—Fifteen of the 93 collieries of the Philadelphia & Reading Co. have suspended for December. Three thousand men are out of work.

Fire at Oshkosh.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Dec. 4.—The Beckwith hotel was burned to-day. Loss $40,000; insurance $28,000. Mrs. S. B. Page, a boarder, was suffocated by smoke. Mollie Hillycan, a waiter, is missing and it is believed perished. Kerosene caused the fire.

American Oysters in German Waters.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The one and a half millions of American oysters writes a German correspondent, which were planted in "The Little Belt" last spring were inspected a short time ago and found in fine growing condition. Within four months they gained an inch in circumference, and a German professor of zoology gives assurance that for oysters Germany cannot be excelled.

WASHINGTON CITY.

More Scholars for Forest Grove Authorized.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 1.—The secretary of the interior to-day issued orders providing for an increase of one hundred pupils in the number of Indian youth now educated at the Forest Grove, Oregon, industrial school and for forty or fifty additional at the Hampton, Va., school.

Boat Race on the Potomac.

The three mile professional scull race on the Potomac this afternoon was won by Kennedy of Portland, Me. Lee, of Newport, 2d; Plaisted last. Time, 20:30. Kennedy crossed the line one open length in advance of Lee. Plaisted was about eight lengths astern.

Increased Value of Improved Lands.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Washington reports, now nearly ready, show increased value of farm lands, cleared and timbered, for 1880, as follows: California 12 per cent, Oregon 16 per cent. For the whole country the average is 8 per cent. South Atlantic states advanced 6 per cent, gulf states 8 per cent, south inland states 9 per cent, chiefly owing to the improved condition of Arkansas lands; north of the Ohio 8 per cent, on account of the vast strides in mineral and manufacturing industries, while western or prairie states show 10 per cent. The Pacific states are supposed to be down to 4 per cent increase on account of the agitation of the Chinese question but the report indicates that the signs of reaction are beginning to appear.

Gen. Miles not an Applicant for the Signal Service Vacancy

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Reports alleging that Col. Miles is a candidate for the position of chief signal officer prevail upon inquiry in official quarters erroneous. Col. Miles is noted as a fighter and has been engaged several years in the most arduous service and his friends feel that he is entitled to the promotion he has earned, but this promotion will likely be in the line of active service and he will probably be made a brigadier general to succeed Gen. Ord. In this respect changes provided by law it is understood that Gen. Hazen will be appointed chief signal officer.

McDowell not to be Retired.

General McDowell will not be retired although his [illegible] vote for Garfield gave grounds of [illegible] Sherman [illegible] president decides that [illegible].

Appointment by the President.

The president appointed to-day [illegible] Arizona territory [illegible] New York [illegible].

The Washington Republican sold to Gen. Bradley.

WASHINGTON, Dec. [illegible]—Assistant Postmaster General [illegible].

NEW YORK, [illegible]—A Herald's Washington [illegible].

The Christianity Case

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—[illegible] whose affidavits [illegible] Minister Christiancy [illegible] Mrs. Christiancy [illegible].

Land Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. [illegible].—[illegible] in favor of the [illegible] Capt. John Mullan [illegible] state land [illegible] Nevada land [illegible] difference between Capt. Mullan as land agent for Nevada and the general land office as to the true construction of the act of June 16, 1880 will be laid before the secretary of the interior [illegible] reports from Oregon [illegible] interior indicate that the state authorities and United States [illegible] of execution of the Oregon swamp land decision [illegible] rendered by Secretary Schurz.

Pacific Coast Revenue Collections

The annual report of the commissioner of internal revenue gives the following figures [illegible] aggregate collections for the year in the districts named: California first district $2,437 [illegible]; Oregon $71,[illegible]; Washington Territory, [illegible]; Arizona $28,954; total $168,289.

The Chinese Treaty.

It is authoritatively stated that the new Chinese treaty will be sent to the senate early in the session so as to dispose of it as quickly as possible. Californian representatives who have inquired diligently say that it will in a great measure satisfy them, though not entirely. It is believed that no attempt will be made to pass a Chinese restrictive bill until after the treaty is disposed of.

The Opium Clause in the New Chinese Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—It is now announced that the second treaty drawn up by the U. S. commissioners and the Pekin government proposes that the Americans shall not import opium or carry the product coastwise or sell it. It is not known positively, a full report of the treaty not having been sent by cable, whether this is true or not, but it is not believed, but it is thought quite likely because the Chinese government has been long opposed to the importation of opium into China. American vessels were formerly largely engaged in the business of opium smuggling, but very little is done by Americans in that business nowadays. The prohibitional clause will not affect Americans and was probably inserted in the treaty by the Chinese as compelling the British to a similar agreement, as a large proportion of the revenue of British India comes from opium and China is the greatest customer for Indian opium. If the Chinese have granted to the United States any special privileges in the new treaty the British will ask to have similar privileges granted them.

Belva at the Bar.

Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, the only female lawyer ever admitted to practice in the United States supreme court, commanded the attention of the members of that tribunal yesterday, in a twenty minute argument.

Work of the Life Saving Service.

The life saving service has 179 stations: 139 on the Atlantic, 34 on the lakes and 6 on the Pacific. The record of the service surpasses any previous year. The casualties were greater than ever before, the highest previous number being 319 and this year 300. Of the 1,389 persons on board of these vessels only nine were lost. Great relief has been afforded shipwrecked persons and vessels, and warnings were given which saved many vessels. It is estimated that the value of vessels involved was $2,616,000 and cargoes $1,195,000. Of the total amount $2,690,000 were saved. Inadequate compensation is fast driving men from the business and threatens to destroy the efficiency of the service. The superintendent asks that the matter of pay be left to the discretion of the general superintendent. The present rate is $40 per month.

Decrease of Business at the San Francisco Mint.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The annual report of the director of the mint states that diminished production of gold and silver of the Pacific coast has visibly affected both the amount of deposits and coinage at the San Francisco mint and gives the following figures: Value of deposits during fiscal year of 1880 $33,387,949; amount of coinage $35,051,000, showing a decrease as compared with the preceding year of a little more than four million in deposits and almost exactly six millions in coinage. The coinage at the mint in 1880 was $13,000,000 less of gold and $4,000,000 less of silver than in 1878.

Mistaken Report about the Jamestown now at Sitka.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Captain Beardslee, of the navy, has received a letter from an officer of the Jamestown reported almost wrecked at Sitka. The writer states that no accident happened to the Jamestown, but that it was the schooner Gen. Miller that came near being wrecked and it was saved by the Jamestown. No lives were lost. Many inquiries have been made by the families and friends of the officers and crew of the Jamestown.

Coinage During November

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—During November the mints coined $4,574,000 gold and $2,300,000 silver.

Military Offenders

The president has approved the sentence of the court martial dismissing Captain Andrew Geddis, of the 25th infantry, and mitigated the sentence of 1st Lieut. Wallace Tear, 25th infantry, to forfeiture of rank and half pay.

SECRETARY SCHURZ' REPORT.

Protection asked for the Big Redwood Trees of California—Recommendations for the Disposal of Public Lands—Etc., Etc.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—In his annual report to-day Secretary Schurz again calls attention to the fact that the waste and destruction of the big redwood trees of California have continued to be so great as to cause apprehension that in the course of years these magnificent species may entirely disappear, unless some measures will be taken to preserve at least a portion of them. He renews his recommendation of last year that the president be authorized to withdraw from sale or other disposition an area at least equal to a township in the coast range in northern California and an equal area in the southern part of California upon which these interesting trees grow. He remarks that a bill has been introduced in congress to accomplish this object and has not yet been acted on and adds: It seems important that if any measure for the preservation of these species of trees is to be taken at all it should be done as soon as possible. [illegible] commend the subject to the attention of congress.

The secretary also reviews his last year's recommendation for the enactment of Senator [illegible]'s bill to provide for the settlement of private land claims in all territory derived from Mexico except California. He says with reference to the public land commissioner bill now pending in congress: The importance of the passage of this or a similar bill by congress cannot be overestimated. Existing laws for surveys and disposal of public lands were mainly enacted mainly while government was disposing of public lands east of the Missouri river. The climate, soil and products of the land west of the 100th meridian are so entirely different from those east of it as to require legislation especially applying thereto. Early action upon this bill is urgently demanded by public interests as settlement in our western territories progresses. I beg that the attention of congress be directed to this important subject.

The main features of legislation urged by Secretary Schurz for the protection of government lands and the preservation of the forests of the country are the following:

First—That the government should be authorized to sell timber from lands principally valuable for timber growing or those that are not agricultural or mineral at a reasonable price, [illegible] at mere nominal rates to supply all domestic needs and all wants of local business enterprise as well as of commerce, the latter so far as compatible with public interest.

Secondly—That these sales of timber be so regulated as to preserve the necessary proportion of the forest on public lands from waste and indiscriminate destruction. Such a policy can in his opinion be carried out without great [illegible] but with simple machinery and in perfect justice to the wants of settlers and business enterprises of the country. It is virtually the policy proposed by the public lands commission in their report and bill submitted to congress at its last session. He again urges the enactment of a law prescribing severe penalties for willful negligence [illegible] setting fires upon public lands and providing for the recovery of damages [illegible].

In his report Secretary Schurz recommends a liberal appropriation for the extension of the geological survey all over the United States. He recommends that for the new government buildings [illegible] size [illegible] in the [illegible] the square [illegible] the interior department. SECRETARY THOMPSON'S REPORT.

Efforts of the Naval Department to aid Commercial Interests—Necessity for Increase of the Navy—Financial Statement—Command of the Pacific—Affairs in Alaska.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, [illegible].—Secretary Thompson in his annual report calls attention to the growth [illegible] trade with Central and South American [illegible] trade is likely to pass entirely [illegible] assure are [illegible] that the navy department can properly do. This [illegible] has been done [illegible] at the ports of war [illegible] as many of their ports as possible with a view of enabling the authorities and people of these countries to understand that it is our desire to cultivate with them most amicable commercial relations. Both their interest and ours would be thus promoted. The products of South America which reach the Pacific coast can only reach this country by way of San Francisco or the Isthmus of Panama [illegible] steps as are calculated to establish more intimate relations with those states [illegible] of that isthmus. The authority of the secretary of the navy is limited upon this subject and does not extend beyond the [illegible] at points where vessels may be induced to touch in order to [illegible] intercourse where it is greatly needed [illegible] I have therefore caused steps to be taken for the establishment of coaling stations upon each side of the isthmus at points eminently suitable both as regards naval uses and the commerce of that region. The one on the east side is located at Chiriqui lagoon in the Carribean sea and in the immediate vicinity [illegible] and that on the west at the bay of Golfito, a part of the gulf of Dulce in the Pacific. The distance between them is less than one hundred miles. The only two safe and sufficiently commodious harbors in the isthmus are at these points and although the department did not, before making deposits of coal, acquire a title to the lands, it supplied itself as [illegible] itself that no difficulty would be likely to arise on that score, although it was not anticipated that any political objection would be made to a preliminary examination and survey of these waters, yet careful instructions were given to command of the vessels assigned to this performance of that duty to the effect that if either government interposed any objection to the movement they should immediately suspend operations and report the matter to the department that it be made a subject of diplomatic negotiations. Inasmuch, however, as no obstacle of this kind was encountered, either at Chiriqui lagoon or Golfito, coal in sufficient quantities was deposited at each harbor and now remains there for future use by our vessels wherever it may be needed. The question of acquiring a title to a sufficient quantity of land upon these harbors is necessarily left for subsequent action of the government. Initiatory steps have also been taken to establish a like station at Punta Arenas in Costa Rica and it is believed that the department will be enabled to accomplish this before the expiration of many months. It would be greatly to the advantage and contribute much towards the economical management of the navy department if acquisition similar to these I have mentioned were made in other parts of the world. The strong maritime powers of Europe employ great vigilance in this particular and we should not be behind them in doing what we legitimately and properly can to extend our maritime influence over the world. The navy is closely allied to the commerce of the country and should be extended to protect business everywhere.

Increase of the navy should keep pace with increase of commerce to protect and foster it. It is a most opportune time now to extend both. Congress could protect our ship building interests and thus increase our merchant marine both for war and business purposes. England owes her present naval superiority to this policy and it serves no valuable purpose to contrast our condition with hers unless we shall profit by her example. So long as her merchant vessels built under her protection and patronage, are allowed to draw annually from our wealth about $100,000,000 as compensation for freighting our commerce, just so long will our inferiority exist. Whenever our own commerce shall be carried on in vessels owned and built by our own people, capable of being turned into ships of war when necessary, we shall reach a point equally with her and be prepared when necessity shall arise to test with her the question of superiority upon the sea. Before the war we had nearly succeeded in running British vessels from the ocean, and since then have contented ourselves with uttering complaints against England for her agency in destroying ours while the war was in progress. Time for active measures has now arrived and every future year of neglect will add to our inferiority.

The secretary's report shows a balance of $1,788,300 unexpended appropriations, or, after adding the amount paid $762,751, an amount available for the next fiscal year $15,095,000; estimates $16,953,761.

The secretary recommends the repeal of a proviso to the act of June 17, 1878, so as to restore to the president authority to appoint 4th cadet midshipmen annually.

Secretary Thompson also says in his annual report: The Pacific ocean opens to our future commerce its broadest and most profitable field. In the Atlantic it encounters such formidable European rivalry as can only be overcome, if at all, by the most persistent and vigorous measures of protection on the part of the government, but our acquisition of Alaska and the Aleutian islands and our treaty relations with Japan, the Sandwich Islands and Samoa, together with our present commercial intercourse with China and the East Indies, place us upon such equal terms on the Pacific with their powers that it will be our own fault if the advantages now promised our commerce be lost. Our products are fast becoming a necessity to oriental people, and their interests as well as ours suggest the adoption of the most efficient measures on our part to increase our trade with them. Our manufactured goods are preferred to those of England, but they find their way there through the Japanese, with whom the Coreans have a treaty of amity and commerce. Benefits derived in this way, however indirect, would be greatly increased if the ports of that country were opened to our merchant vessels. Our relations with the Japanese government are such that there is no reason to doubt its friendly agency in bringing about this result and it is confidently believed that it will be accomplished in a short time.

After detailing all that is known of the Jeannette expedition, in which he takes strong ground that the steamer is safe, the secretary proceeds to consideration of the unsettled condition of affairs in Alaska. He reviews Commodore Beardslee's work in that field and adds that in the opinion of Beardslee, if the Jamestown is withdrawn without the substitution of some authority with a proper degree of strength to maintain order, it is more than probable that violent acts will be committed by some of the lawless whites who will be drawn to Alaska by the very fact of there being an entire absence of law. This would undoubtedly undo all the progress thus far accomplished and throw the community again into anarchy. Citizens are now being drawn to the southeastern part of the territory by hopes of future wealth which they expect to derive from its great natural resources of timber, furs, fish and minerals. The territory needs only the protecting hand of the government and security of capital, life and order which local laws and suitable judicial tribunals would give it, to advance rapidly in value.

THE SOVEREIGN PEOPLE.

Address by the President-Elect to the Ohio Electors.

An Honorable Point in American History—Garfield's High Idea of Duty to the Popular Will.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

MENTOR, [illegible].—[illegible] Garfield said: [illegible] of your visit [illegible] grateful to me [illegible] all and both personal and public congratulation. If I were to [illegible] that compliment in the light of a personal tribute [illegible] it would probably be as gratifying as anything could be in the history of [illegible]. If my own conduct during the campaign [illegible] strengthened [illegible] I am glad. If under trying circumstances my behavior as a candidate for the presidency has merited your approval I am greatly gratified, but the larger subject of your congratulations to me on the triumph of the republican party [illegible] great [illegible] I venture, however, to mention a reflection which has occurred to me in reference to the electors of yesterday. I suppose that no political event has happened in all the course of the contest since early in the spring which has excited so little excitement and indeed so little public observation, as the presidential election which was held yesterday at midday.

The American people paid but little attention, detail in the last presidential election and [illegible] significant report [illegible] and all [illegible] electoral college had an absolute constitutional and technical right to vote for any [illegible] every American knew that the august sovereign of this republic, the nine million voters [illegible] in November had pronounced the [illegible] choice and that sovereign as surely as [illegible] that which he had ordered to be done [illegible] that his will would be [illegible] That is the reason why the people were so quiet yesterday. They had never yet found an American who had failed to keep his trust as a presidential elector. From this thought I draw this lesson, that when that omnipotent sovereign—the American people—speaks to one man and orders him to do duty on that man rests the most solemn obligations of duty except [illegible] the God of the universe might impose upon him. Yesterday through our votes and the votes of others in various states of the union it is probable that the returns will show that our great political sovereign has laid his commands upon me. If he has done so I am as bound by his will and his great inspiration and purpose as I could be bound by any consideration that this earth can impose upon any human being. In that presence there I stand and am awed by the majesty and authority of such a command. In so far as I can interpret the dual aspirations and purposes of our august sovereign, I shall seek to realize them. You and I and those who have acted with us in the years past believe that that sovereign loves liberty and desires for the inhabitants of the republic peace and prosperity under the sway of just and equal laws. Gentlemen, I thank you for this visit, for the welcome, for the suggestions, your presence and your words bring, and I have the hope you have expressed that in the arduous and great work before us we may maintain the standard of nationality, promote all that is good and worthy in this country, and during the coming four years raise just as large a crop of peace, prosperity, justice, liberty and culture as is possible for forty nine millions of people to raise.

CHILI AND PERU.

Offer of Mediation by the United States Declined.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

PANAMA, Nov. 29.—A commission of arbitration has been in session at the American embassy for three days. Each belligerent recognized the necessity for peace and approved the disinterested course of the United States. Chili presented terms which were for increased territory and restoration of property taken from Chilian citizens and the governments of Bolivia and Peru rejected these demands. Minister Christiancy suggested that Peru and Bolivia might have propositions to make, and a representative of Peru moved to refer the entire question to the government of the United States for arbitration, the decision to be final without favoring either party to the struggle. The proposition of arbitration was not accepted by Chili. President Osborne in declaring the conference ended said that he and his colleagues profoundly lamented that the conference should have yielded the peace and conciliatory results hoped from it and believed that the same impression will be made upon the government and people of the United States when the fact is communicated to them that the friendly mediation of the United States has been fruitless. Letters from Valparaiso assert that an order has been issued to the commander of the Chilian expeditionary force to move on Lima at an early date. In the meantime a portion of the force had started on an expedition against Arica and rumors were current in Chorrillos that the city had fallen into Chilian hands. This report however is generally doubted, as Lynch's contingent when last heard from was at Quilca, some distance from the old Inca capital.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Brazil Increases her Military Strength.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 15.—Owing to the Argentine republic's armaments the Brazilian senate has voted a credit of 6,000,000 milreis for the purpose of increasing the naval force of Brazil. The opposition thereupon declared its willingness to vote a credit of 6,000,000 milreis for army material. The minister of war accepted the offer. The government at the same time expressed confidence in the pacific intentions of the Argentine government.

JUDGE BLACK ON RAILROADS.

He Considers the Pacific Railroads Public Highways and Says they Should be Regulated by Government.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Judge Black responding to the New York board of commerce [illegible] the injury inflicted by unjust and discriminating rates of railroad transportation [illegible] sets forth [illegible] in which he makes the point that railroads are [illegible] property of the [illegible] parties authorized to run them, which is a radically false argument. A public highway cannot be private property, and a railroad built under authority of the state for purposes of commerce is as much a public highway as a turnpike road, canal or navigable river. Tax tolls or freight in any case, is not the subject of a bargain between shipper and corporation but a thing to be settled, fixed and prescribed by public authority. The two companies between Omaha and San Francisco raised in cash out of government bonds, lands and mortgages of their franchises four or five times as much as they necessarily expended on the roads. The stockholders without paying anything put the enormous surplus in their pocket. These roads thus built at the public expense and in some place paid for by the public five times over are now claimed as the private property of the companies and the rights of the public to use them as highways is utterly denied. Nevertheless I think the claim of the public to take reasonable tolls stands upon the same foundation as that of companies whose roads were built by the stockholders themselves at their own proper expense. Your mention of $4 from New York to Salt Lake and only $2.50 to San Francisco is perhaps not the most unrighteous, but it is as gross a violation of legal principle as can be conceived. If these railways belong to the people then the rights of all citizens are precisely equal and all discriminations are unlawful. He thinks the laws necessary to compel them to do the duties they owe to the public faithfully at rates reasonably fixed, uniform and equal without extortion and without discrimination are not hard to frame.

EUCALYPTUS.

Eucalyptus has of late years been found very useful for a great number of the ills that flesh is heir to. Its latest application is in the shape of Slaven's California Pine and Eucalyptus Porous Plaster, an article which is possessed of much merit, and is fast superseding the old pitch and frankincense plaster. It is endorsed by the medical profession throughout the land. For sale by Woodard, Clarke & Co., Portland, Oregon.

Catarrhal

NO SCA

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1. That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local, and soon constitutional.

2. That, being Constitutional, the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3. That impurities in the nostrils, are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and Genito-urinary organs.

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Bronchitis, Leucorrhœa, and Consumption.

5. That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations, and Insoluble Snuffs, cannot possibly remove infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:

&c. &c. &c. &c. &c.

A real cure for this terrible malady, is the most important discovery for the relief of human suffering, since vaccination. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is sold by all Druggists, or delivered by D. B. DEWEY & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y. for $1.50 a package. To Cube six packages for $7.50. NO MORE BLOCKADES.

Heretofore our people have accepted winter isolation as a necessity, and have not thought much about it. But it grows more irksome as it draws to an end. We are not going to have many more ice blockades. There is good reason to hope that the present one will be the last. If money and energy can do it, the railroad from Portland to the Dalles will be completed within twelve months. The company have the money in hand and are going to push it. From Portland to the Cascades the road can be built at moderate outlay, say $25,000 a mile. But from the Cascades to the Dalles it will cost $45,000 a mile. This will make the entire probable cost between three and four millions of dollars. Part of the work will be slow and tedious—the tunnels particularly, of which there will be three or four, all beyond the Cascades. It is said to be the intention of the company to begin on these tunnels so soon as the chief engineer shall have had time to examine and verify the surveys and profiles. Timber and ties will all be got in readiness, and every part of the work will be driven with all possible expedition. The present ice blockade will be our last one in that direction, if it be within the power of human energy to get this heavy piece of work through within one year. Below us the rivers are not so frequently obstructed by ice. But this also can be overcome when it occurs. We may expect that iron or steel boats, extremely strong and heavy, and of great power, will be constructed and employed when occasion requires. There is abundant experience to show this to be entirely practicable. Of course we cannot allow the great business which will center here to be stopped by ice in the river below us. The obstructions, whatever they may be, will be removed or overcome. It can not be more than a few years, however, till a railroad is pushed through to Astoria. And there will be another, connecting us directly with Puget Sound. But the Columbia river will be our natural outlet. Our commerce will [illegible] that course, because it is the natural and direct one.

And this suggests another matter. Growing needs of commerce require attention on the part of government to improvement of the entrance of the Columbia river. Rapid railway construction and development of the interior country which is to find its outlet through this channel, will now begin to make the demand a more emphatic, and even an imperative one. Direct railway communication with the great region beyond the Cascade mountains will soon be an accomplished fact. There will be direct connection through the Northern Pacific on the one hand as far as Montana, and through the Oregon company's railway system with the various parts of Eastern Oregon and Washington, and with both Northern and Southern Idaho, on the other. Ultimately, and the time is not distant, there will be two through connections, one by the Northern Pacific and the other by way of Boise and Salt Lake. In a very short time a great stream of commerce will be pouring through this channel. It is within the compass of engineering skill to make great improvement at the entrance of the Columbia river, and the time is almost at hand when it will demand the attention of the government quite as much as the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi. The boards of trade of Portland and Astoria should take the matter in hand; and citizens generally ought also to manifest an interest in it. Memorials, properly prepared, would be highly serviceable. A people who desire an important thing of this kind accomplished must take hold of it themselves. A showing can be made of commercial development which will enforce the attention of the powers at Washington.

THE NEXT APPORTIONMENT.

It is supposed that the work of the census will be so far advanced before the time for adjournment of congress in March next that the new apportionment may be made by the present congress. Some discussion has already arisen on the subject, growing out of the suggestion that a partisan advantage may be taken by a democratic congress in making the apportionment. To meet this it has been proposed that the republicans shall delay the official report of the census, or in some other way prevent the apportionment from being made by the present congress, and hand the subject over to the next one, in which the republicans will be stronger. But the apportionment, after the totals of population are returned by the census commissioner, will be a matter of simple arithmetic. No great wrong can possibly be committed. The only chance either party would have of getting an advantage would be in assignment of representatives for fractions of the number of inhabitants adopted as the basis. That is, a number might be adroitly adopted as the ratio which would give most of the fractions over half the basis—and on each of such fractions a representation is allowed—to democratic states. Or, on the other hand, if the republicans controlled it, they might do the like thing in the interest of their party. But neither party could get an advantage over the other by this expedient of more than two or three members, at most. This could be no great matter. The chief reason for hastening the apportionment this session is that many legislatures will be in session during the winter, and can redistrict their states at once. Should the subject go over till the next congress the legislatures will have adjourned, and as not a few of them hold only biennial sessions, the readjustment of the districts would be postponed two years further.

Already the results of the census are ascertained with sufficient approximation to certainty to show us nearly how the next apportionment will stand. If the number of representatives remains, as now, 293, the ratio of representation will be increased from 131,425, as it now stands, to about 170,000. On this basis the New England states will lose four representatives—the states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts one each. The middle states will lose six—New York three, New Jersey one, and Pennsylvania two. Of the southern states three—Maryland, Alabama and Tennessee—will lose one member each. South Carolina, Arkansas and Missouri will gain one each, and Texas will gain three. The net gain of the southern states will therefore be three members. The western states will gain as follows: California one, Kansas three, Minnesota two and Nebraska two. Indiana will lose one.

Thus the sum of all the losses in northern states will be eleven, and the gain in the northern states will be eight—making a net loss of three. In the southern states there will be a net gain of three members, as above shown. This last, however, rests on the assumption that the unexpected and hitherto unprecedented gains of population reported in several southern states are true, and that the enumeration will stand. Another investigation is now in progress in South Carolina, where the census reports a larger increase of population during the last ten years than was witnessed during fifty years prior to 1860. That is an incredible result in an old state.

A very large northern population has been pouring into all the territories which cuts no figure in the apportionment, as it has no representation at all. But Dakota, Washington and Montana will all be admitted as states within a very few years and then their people will have just weight in the government.

It is now supposed that the Northern Pacific will not pass through or near Helena, Montana. The most probable route takes the road about one hundred miles south of that place. This gives a much easier pass over the Rocky mountain divide.

THE EAST WIND.

We here, on this verge of the western continent, may well add our contribution to the maledictions of literature on the east wind. For we have had during several days past provocation enough to it. The cold wave, with its accompanying snow, is the offspring of the east wind which temporarily usurped the place of the blessed southern trades which bring us our rain and keep off the blasts of winter. If there is any person in all our borders who for a week past has not felt like exclaiming with Keats, "O for a beaker full of the warm south!" such person must be one who never heard of Keats, and who likewise is indifferent to the kindliness of those gentle southern gales which we look to visit us in winter, telling us in whispers whence they stole their humid spoils.

For thousands of years the east wind has had a bad name in literature, and we may well believe from what has been witnessed here during a week past that it deserves it. In his remarkable dream Pharaoh beheld "seven thin ears, blasted with the east wind sprung up after them." And Moses "stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt and the Lord brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night; and when it was morning the east wind brought the locusts;"—a story paraphrased in this inimitable manner by Milton:

> As when the potent rod
> Of Amram's son in Egypt's evil day,
> Waved round the coast up called the pitchy cloud
> Of locusts warping on the eastern wind,
> That o'er the realm of impious Pharaoh hung
> Like night and darkened all the land
> Of Nile.

Eliphaz, answering Job, asked: "Should a wise man utter vain knowledge and fill his belly with the east wind?" In the Psalms is the text: "Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind." In Isaiah, "He stayeth the rough wind in the day of the east wind;" and in Ezekiel, "The east wind drieth up fruit," and "the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the sea." There are more scriptural texts, but these will answer to show that we may draw from orthodox sources our materials for maledictions upon the east wind. The "tempestuous wind called Euroclydon," which drove Paul and his companions about for fourteen days and finally wrecked them, was an east or easterly wind.

In Homer's story it was the east wind that gave the chief of Ithaca his heaviest buffetings on his memorable journey homeward through the deep. In Virgil and Horace the east wind is described as a terror. Adjectives implying reproach or objurgation are usually coupled with the word that names it. The literature of every country of Europe abounds with similar expressions. English poetry is full of them. Take this from Pope's "Rape of the Lock":

> No cheerful breeze this sullen region knows,
> The dreadful east is all the wind that blows.

Readers of Dickens will remember "Bleak House," and its east wind. But citations need not be multiplied. Enough has been produced to show that our detestation of the east wind is an entirely legitimate inheritance. And we may seriously doubt whether any people ever had more valid reason to ban it than we have.

The commissioner of the general land office shows that during the fiscal year 14,792,371.65 acres of the public domain were sold. This is an increase over the preceding year of 5,458,371.05 acres. In this aggregate are included of cash sales 850,340.63 acres, an increase of 226,166.67 acres over the previous fiscal year; of homestead entries, 6,045,570.60 acres, an increase of 785,450.54 acres; and of timber culture entries, 2,108,184.12 acres, which is a decrease of 575,989.81 acres as compared with the previous fiscal year. The amount of moneys received during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, from various sources, is $2,290,161.60, exceeding the receipts of the previous fiscal year by $407,048.04. During the same period there were certified for railroad purposes 1,157,975.-[illegible] acres, an increase, as compared with the previous fiscal year, of 870,040.90 acres; certified for wagon road purposes, 19,485.14 acres. The commissioner makes a strong appeal for a larger and more efficient corps of assistants. He takes strong grounds in favor of employing the best attainable legal services in the settlement of the complicated cases now upon the dockets and others constantly coming up for judicial determination. The increasing value of the land and the great interests of the purchasers are urged as an argument in favor of employing the most efficient men and measures for the settlement of contests that public and private interests shall be determined under the law. Legislation on the land question is very voluminous and complicated, and none but those learned in the law should be employed to present the legal questions which may arise from time to time. Such grave interests ought not to be committed to the hands of bunglers, on grounds of party favoritism or otherwise. This argument not only applies to agricultural, but also to mining lands.

A paragraph which appeared in THE OREGONIAN some days since concerning a decision of the general land office to the effect that all lands filed upon under the homestead act prior to June 15, 1880, can be purchased by the party who has made such homestead entry at $1 25 per acre, less the amount of fees, etc., paid at the date of the original entry, should have included an exception as to lands inside of railroad limits. The new act reduces to $1 25 per acre the price of any lands which were subject to ordinary private entry at $2 50 per acre at the date of the approval of the act, having been doubled in price by reason of the grant of alternate sections for railroad purposes, and which were put in market at that price prior to January 1, 1861. But lands which were not put in market for sale at ordinary private entry at $2 50 per acre, or which were so put in market subsequent to January 1, 1861, are not changed in price. A note from the register at Oregon City gives this explanatory statement: "Under the act of June 15, 1880, land which was raised to $2 50 per acre prior to 1861, will now be sold for $1 25 per acre, while the land inside of railroad limits in this district was not raised to $2 50 per acre until October 29, 1869." We presume the same rule applies in all the land districts in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, since in every case the increase of price, on account of railroad grants has taken place since January, 1861. This would follow from the fact that the grants have all been made since that date.

THE OREGONIAN has, and has always had, many democratic readers. The main reason is that they want the news and know by experience that this paper never fails to furnish it. Doubtless also many of them are desirous of knowing what their principles are; and they have seldom failed to ascertain this also at suitable times from its columns. No half dozen democratic papers in the state are read by so many democrats as THE OREGONIAN is. It has been so for the past twenty years. Of course the reason is that this journal fills a democratic want. Papers have never been wanting which have aspired to be regarded as the exclusive organs of that party, and they have never failed to entreat democrats not to take THE OREGONIAN, or to berate them for reading THE OREGONIAN. But when men of any class or party go to buy a newspaper, as anything else, they buy the best that can be had for the money. Intelligent men who want a good newspaper never deprive themselves of it to please those who offer an inferior article.

To the political "solidity" of the south the republicans of the north would make no objection if that solidity were the result of a full, honest and free expression of public sentiment. The south can be as solid as it pleases and democratic to its heart's content, if it will only allow fair play. All that is desired, even by the most stalwart republicans, is that the intelligence, the wealth, and the political experience of the south shall adapt itself to circumstances, and shall have the courage to believe in its own ability to control the political destiny of the southern states by fair, legal and honorable means. The shame and scandal of the situation in the south is that a party with all these advantages, and in full possession of the machinery of government, should degrade itself by recourse to fraud and terrorism in order to control or divide the colored vote.

The Maine senatorship appears to lie between Mr. Frye and Mr. Hale, with a chance of Mr. Reed as a third candidate, and a possibility, in case of a prolonged struggle, that Mr. Hamlin will be returned in spite of his partial declination to be a candidate. Mr. Frye and Mr. Reed are both estopped by the danger of leaving their districts to the chances of another congressional election, in the present state of Maine politics, and with so narrow a republican margin in the house that not a single vote can be safely spared. It is not certain that Mr. Hale can be elected, since he has no great hold on the politics of his state. If the republicans of Maine would do the best thing, they would elect General Chamberlain.

The last session of the forty-sixth congress will open to-day. It will expire on the 4th March next at noon.

MONDAY MORNING DEC 6 1880

CITY.

The Crowning.—The [illegible] Delegations from [illegible] Portland were present [illegible] council Chief Engineer [illegible] was made on the [illegible] which the table fairly groaned [illegible] were performed by Messrs [illegible] Barr [illegible] Thompson and [illegible] under the personal [illegible] Smith and [illegible] After a general [illegible] voting the affair a pleasant and remembered one

Dramatic Entertainment.—A dramatic [illegible] will be given at New Market Theatre [illegible] Thursday evening Dec 9th [illegible] George Wright Post No [illegible] G A R [illegible] drama entitled "True [illegible] Brother [illegible]" is now in active [illegible] and will be present on that occasion. The rehearsals are under the [illegible] There will be [illegible] and as the drama is of a military character [illegible] 100 soldiers will appear on the stage in the presentation of the piece [illegible] of the entertainment will be [illegible] fund of the post

E P Improvements.—From the Vindicator the following improvements noted are collated: Mr [illegible] Jones contemplates erecting a residence on J street between Sixth and Seventh. Mr Chas Tal[illegible] is erecting a two story residence on Holladay's addition near Mr A G Cunningham's place [illegible] about $1100. Hon A J Dufur's residence on Holladay avenue recently completed and occupied by him, is one of the most handsome buildings in the city and is a great ornament to that locality. The residence of Mr I N Sanders on the corner of J and Fourteenth streets, is complete except painting the exterior. It will cost about $1000. The [illegible] was removed into it yesterday

Death of Mr. Colburn.—Fremont W Colburn, a brother of A E Colburn the well known railroad contractor departed life at the residence of the latter in East Portland Saturday morning. About five years ago the deceased came to this state from Minnesota in the hope of benefiting his health. Soon after arriving here Mr Colburn was taken down with the typhoid fever. He was in a fair way to recover when a large abscess formed on his lungs which terminated fatally. The deceased was in the [illegible] year of his age. He leaves a wife and child to mourn the loss of a husband and father. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon Rev A J Crukan officiating the services

Honorably Acquitted.—Mention was made in these columns a few days ago of the arrest of a young man named John Murphy charged with the larceny of a watch. Saturday the case came up before Judge Stearns for examination. During the course of the examination Murphy showed to the entire satisfaction of the court that he had purchased the watch at the Dalles and that he came honestly into the possession of the time piece. After hearing the testimony Judge Stearns honorably acquitted the defendant and ordered his discharge from custody

On the Hunt.—A meeting of the Multnomah Rod and Gun Club was held Friday evening at which time it was determined to hold a grand hunt on the third Thursday in January. The members divided off under the captains, R. E. Bybee and Sam T Stephens. Capt. Bybee chose the following persons: A Clark, W Ewing Chapman, W P Burger, J J [illegible], M F Spencer, Lieut. Patton, F Zan and J Whalley. Capt. Stephens chose the following: Geo Stewart, J G Bliss, D K Howe, T Hudson, J H Stoddard, Frank G Abell and E Struble

A Small Fire.—About [illegible] o'clock Saturday evening an alarm of fire was sounded from box 12. Flames and smoke were seen to issue from an old wooden shanty which stands on the north side of Morrison street between Second and Third. The several fire companies of the city lost no time in reaching the scene. The interior of the building was all in flames when the engines arrived, but two or three powerful streams quickly subdued the fire. The building was occupied by Chinese. The loss will not exceed [illegible] on which there was no insurance.

Will Have a Hearing.—Officer Gillis was suspended a few days ago by Chief of Police Lappeus for being intoxicated, and his case will be heard this evening by the committee on health and police of the common council. It is stated that some drugged liquor was given him. Mr Gillis has made an efficient and faithful officer, was never known to be addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors and it is to be hoped that he will be able to successfully defend himself before the committee.

School Report.—From the report of J. P. Ewing principal of the East Portland public schools for the month ending November 26th it appears that the schools are in a very prosperous condition. The total number of days of attendance of the different schools—Central, J street and Stephens addition—[illegible] number of days of absence 654, average attendance 337, per cent 31 8; average number of pupils belonging, [illegible] total cases of tardiness [illegible]

Steamers.—The steamer Oregon which sailed Saturday morning arrived at Astoria at 4 P M Sunday. She was detained there all night and did not leave until yesterday forenoon at half past [illegible] o'clock. The steamer Elder arrived at Astoria [illegible] evening, left for Portland at 7.30 A M [illegible] passed Kalama at 1.39 P M but had not arrived here up to the time of going to press. It is impossible to ascertain the cause of her delay

Entertainment Deferred.—In consequence of the inclement weather, and the indisposition of some of the ladies who is to take part in the exercises, the ladies of the open temperance society have decided to defer the proposed entertainment. The entertainment was announced to come off at the [illegible] Theatre to-morrow (Tuesday) evening but is postponed until next Saturday evening December 11.

Painful Accident.—Saturday forenoon one of the workmen named Battinsen employed at the establishment of A G Walling met with a painful mishap. By some means one of his hands was caught in a press and considerably crushed. The injured member was dressed but the accident will require the young man to carry his arm in a sling for a few days

Good Showing.—The Idaho Democrat contains the following paragraph concerning Rev Father Verhaag, who was stationed for several years at East Portland: "Rev Father Verhaag since his residence in Boise City has paid on the Catholic church debt the sum of $725, which is a good showing for so short period."

To Be Dedicated.—Next Thursday the new chapel at St. Vincent's hospital will be dedicated to the service of God by Archbishop Seghers. The choral services promise to be exceedingly fine on this occasion, Rev. Father Vaibeau having secured a quartet of male voices for the impressive ceremony

Firemen's Election.—To-day the annual election of chief engineer of the Portland fire department and first and second assistants, will take place. There is very little excitement felt over the result, as there is but one ticket in the field.

New Rooms.—A splendid suit of rooms have been fitted up in St. Vincent Hospital for the exclusive use of Archbishop Blanchet, who spends the most of his time in administering spiritual consolation to the patients.

Convalescent.—The friends of Miss Belle DuBois and Miss Hexy Test will be gratified to learn that they are both convalescent. These young ladies have both been quite ill with scarlet fever

Postponed.—The Ladies Fair which has been announced for next Tuesday evening at [illegible] church, has been postponed for one week on account of inclemency of the weather

International Good Templars.—Bethel Home Lodge I O G T of the world meets at 6 o clock in Bethel Hall, corner of D and Third streets

ICE BLOCKADE IN THE UPPER COLUMBIA

Heavy Snow here Saturday followed by Rain and Consequently more Moderate Weather

[illegible]

Inspector Simpson of the postal department sent telegrams to several men [illegible] asking [illegible] carry mail to The Dalles over the trail [illegible] last night no answers were received. He hopes to be able to secure the services of some one to day and it is likely that a mail will be started to-morrow morning

UP THE COLUMBIA

Reports from points along the middle and upper Columbia show that the severe weather east of the Cascades has not abated and it is certain that the river will be blocked for several days. The heavy fall of snow reported in the dispatches together with the intense cold must cause much loss of stock on ranges. Following are the latest telegrams

SATURDAY EVENING'S REPORT—8 O CLOCK

Wallula—Ther 11 cloudy light down stream wind river running full of ice but not clogging up yet

Umatilla—Ther 9 cloudy and calm large heavy cakes of ice running in the river

Celilo—Ther 16 snowing light down stream wind river full of running ice

The Dalles—Ther 17 clearing down stream wind river freezing clear across here

Cascades—Ther 16 light down stream wind with light snow river full of floating ice

SUNDAY MORNING REPORT—10 O CLOCK

Wallula—Snowing and blowing from the north ther 8

Umatilla—Snowing and calm about one inch of snow on a level ther 14 river full of running ice

Dalles—Snowing hard no wind snow 15 inches deep ther 17 river blocked ice backed half a mile above town

Cascades—Light down stream wind ther 17 river full of floating ice snowing very hard about 10 inches on the ground

No reports were received last night

PROBABILITIES

The recent freeze in this city was caused by the strong wind coming through the pass of the Cascade mountains from eastern Oregon. It did not extend more than 40 miles up the valley. For two days east prevailing winds have varied between south and west generally near south bringing warmer atmosphere and our usual rain. The barometer is higher at Sacramento than at any other point of observation on the coast and the stations north show a gradually lower reading. At seven o clock last night wind set in from the east and continued two hours. However the thermometer rose slightly and at 8.30 was 34 degrees above zero. Should the wind shift to the south we may confidently expect that the mercury will rise to 45 or 50 degrees. If it continues in the east, a repetition of Thursday's cold—but Sufficient unto the day etc etc

Prof Condon lectured last week at Wilbur on How Oregon was made

The Roseburg papers report the discovery of a gold mine in Douglas county but do not locate it

The schooner Enterprise took about 4000 cases of salmon and 50 tons of wheat from Scottsburg on her last trip to San Francisco

Treasurer Wright of Douglas has sent to the state treasurer $3175 state taxes making the amount sent so far $8875. The balance due from that county to the state is $7048

Roseburg Independent. The late rain was a God send to this part of the state. It will save thousands of sheep allow the farmers to plow and give an abundance of water to the miners

The Coos Bay wagon road is now open for stages and other wagons except for the distance of two miles which will soon be completed. The company have put in substantial bridges and otherwise greatly improved the road

About a ton of coal from the newly discovered mine in Looking Glass was taken to Roseburg this week and distributed among the blacksmith shops. It was given a fair test by all and found to be of the best quality. The mine is said to be very extensive

C I Beale of Coos county by means of a ditch a half mile long and a few side ditches drained 1500 acres of swamp land into a lagoon four miles long and sixty feet wide. He has sown the reclaimed land with grass seed and intends to engage in the dairy business

The following business was transacted at the Roseburg land office for the month of November: 18 homesteads embracing 2481 acres; 11 final homesteads embracing 1607 acres; 17 pre-emption filings; 1013 acres sold for cash; one mineral entry embracing 150 acres and 120 acres of timber land sold

The postoffice at Yelm has been discontinued and Postmaster Gale instructed to take possession of the property and have the matter for Yelm taken in charge by the nearest postmaster. Under this direction the Tenino office will take charge of and advance all mail for Yelm and parties heretofore receiving mail at the latter place will now have to get it at Tenino

Olympia Courier. The Washington (Kansas) colony left Kansas May 4th and arrived at the fair grounds near Olympia on the 25th of November at noon. Lost one young man on the journey. The camp at the fair grounds consists of 58 persons: men women and children. Some 50 odd came by water on the last steamer and got off at Seattle but will come to Olympia. About 50 more are on the way from the Yakima. The colony consists of between 100 and 500 people, and will all settle in and about this vicinity. Those here and to arrive this winter take up quarters and make arrangements to begin work in the spring. They are possessed of practical ideas in regard to the country and their future life among us. Six of those at the fair grounds have their families with them

MONDAY MORNING - DEC. 6.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Irish Troubles Increasing.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Excitement over the Irish question increases. Lord Cranbrook, conservative, in speaking at Beach Hampstead last night, declared that if the government had failed to suspend the habeas corpus act, if further outrages were committed, blood would be upon their hands.

Lord Justice James writes that the rent of Irish holdings should be fixed at 20 to 25 per cent over Griffith's valuation, and that any landlord dissatisfied with this should be entitled to call upon the government to purchase his land at a fair price. Col. Gordon, who has been on a tour of the whole west of Ireland, writes that the condition of the people is better than that of any other in the world. A gulf of antipathy exists between them and landlords. Citing as precedent measures taken to abolish slavery in the West Indies, he proposes that the government shall buy out all landlords west of the Shannon at a cost of £80,000,000, of which the great part will be repaid by tenants, and the cancer will be cured. He also proposes that the lands thus acquired be administered by a land commission supplemented by an immigration commission.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—The government will prosecute the proprietor of the Sligo Champion for publishing a notice to his tenants to relinquish his farm.

DUBLIN, Dec. 2.—A large meeting of the Grand Lodge of Ireland resolved to advise Ulster lodges to organize counter demonstrations on the same days at the same places appointed for land league meetings.

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.—Boycott was followed to his hotel recently by forty hooting roughs. The proprietor of the hotel received a threatening letter warning him not to shelter Boycott.

Worse than Reported.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—A Dublin special says only a small proportion of outrages in Ireland are reported in the public press. Obnoxious farmers, agents and landlords are obliged to have a body guard wherever they go.

Artillery Force for Ireland.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Two hundred men of the artillery will go with the marines to Ireland.

Protection for the Irish Coast.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—H. M. S. Valorous starts for south Ireland on Monday with small arms and steam pinnaces for river transit.

Jury Plan for the Irish State Trials.

DUBLIN, Dec. 2.—A jury for state trials is to be selected as follows: Firstly.—From a special jury list comprising 1500 names 48 will be selected by ballot. These 48 names will then again be placed in a ballot box and drawn out separately, each side having the right to object to twelve. From the 24 names thus remaining the jury will be selected each side again having the right to challenges.

Boycott Leaves Ireland.

DUBLIN, Dec. 4.—Boycott has quit the country for England, going sooner than he intended, as he had received threatening letters at the hotel where he was stopping.

Prospect of Trouble.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A telegram from Waterford to a Dublin newspaper says: Arms are being sold to an extraordinary extent and the whole county is armed to the teeth. Prisoners from four counties will be brought to Waterford Monday next for trial, including the men charged with the murder of Boyd.

The Lawless League.

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.—Evidence increases of the rapid spread of land league terrorism and honest tenants are becoming restive under it. Owners and agents say that the condition of affairs is worse than a month ago. There is now universal suspension of payment of rent under the influence of the league.

Dickering for Delay.

DUBLIN, Dec. 4. Parnell, Beggar, J. D. Sullivan, Sexton and Dillon will each file affidavits in the crown office, on which to ground application for postponement of their trials, as the date fixed would interfere with their constitutional right to be present when parliament meets.

No Delay Allowed.

DUBLIN, Dec. 4.—The chief justice of the queen's bench has refused the application of Parnell, Biggar, Dillon et al for postponement.

Parnell at Dublin.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—Parnell has suddenly returned on important business.

Elected Lord Mayor.

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.—Dr. Mayers has been elected lord mayor of this city for 1881.

The usual Laws Useless.

DUBLIN, Dec. 4.—The landlord committee adopted a resolution declaring that the ordinary laws are utterly inadequate to check the agitation.

The New American-Chinese Treaty.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—A Shanghai correspondent telegraphs that a second treaty drawn up by U. S. commissioners and the government at Pekin provides that the Americans shall not import opium or carry the product coastwise or sell it.

Oarsmen Coming to America.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Elliott, Howdon and Boyd have promised to compete in a new American prize regatta.

The French Chamber.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The chambers will be prorogued on the 20th inst. and reassemble on the 1st of January.

Costly Indiscretion.

The manager of the Union newspaper, has been sentenced to pay a fine of 500 francs for insulting the tribunal of conflicts.

Paris Bank Statement.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—Bank's balance to-day decreased ten million francs gold and silver.

Diplomatic.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—Prince Hohenlohe, German ambassador, has arrived here.

Challenge to Fight.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—Laisant has challenged Vicompte St. Vincent to a duel for writing a letter accusing Laisant of cowardice in the Franco-Prussian war, which was read by General DeCissey's council during a recent libel suit.

Failed to Pay.

The manager of the Marseillaise, socialist paper, has been summoned before the police court for an illegal act in proposing a subscription to pay fines imposed in the DeCissey case.

France and the Pope.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—The papal nuncio has communicated to Barthlemy St. Hilaire, minister of foreign affairs, a note containing a fresh protest against the religious decrees which renders the maintenance of Desprez, ambassador of France, at the vatican, impossible.

Proposition to Sell the Crown Jewels of France.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—The government has decided to propose to the chamber of deputies to sell the crown jewels not possessing an historical value. It is estimated that the sale will produce five million francs which would be devoted to extending and improving the national museums.

Eastern Affairs.

VIENNA, Dec. 1.—Negotiations between the powers with regard to a recall of the international fleet is expected to be shortly concluded. The question was raised as to whether it would be advisable to keep up, in some form or other, the fleet as a visible sign of concert of the powers in regard to other pending questions, but it did not seem to have much support and was immediately dropped.

CETTINJE, Dec. 2.—The Montenegrin minister of foreign affairs informed representatives of the powers here that despite the military convention giving Sanjeorgio to Montenegro, Dervish Pasha refused to surrender it on the ground of a determination that the commission must decide the question. General Pectrovich has sent an officer to Sanjeorgio to try to obtain its cession.

France and the Eastern Complications.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—In the chamber of deputies to-day the minister of foreign affairs replying to an interpellation spoke in a similar strain to his speech in the senate Tuesday, touching the Montenegrin, Greek and Armenian questions. The order of the day in favor of the government was then adopted, 307 to 107.

The American Grape Mildew.

ROME, Dec. 2.—In the chamber of deputies to-day during a discussion of the budget, the minister of agriculture, Terassonalini, a distinguished entomologist, declared that American mildew was more destructive to vines than was phylloxera, and that it had spread very considerably in Italy.

Vesuvius Effervescing.

NAPLES, Dec. 2.—A fresh issue of lava is coming from Vesuvius.

Failure of Macedonian Harvests.

SALONICA, Dec. 3.—Macedonian harvests have failed entirely. Wheat is coming from America.

The Jewish Question.

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—The Jewish question continues to attract much attention. Newspapers are debating it, pamphlets are pouring forth, tumults are taking place among students and occasional fracases occur in the streets. A large number of eminent Jews will soon meet to consider steps to defend themselves. It is proposed to establish journals to support their cause officially. An inspired writer in the Grenzboten seeks to vindicate Bismarck from imputation of sympathy with the anti-Jewish movement.

Appeal from the Students.

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—Students are preparing a statement to the rector of the university protesting against distributing by students of Gottingan university of Court Chaplain Stroeckers' petition against the Jews.

The Chinese-Russian Differences.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 3.—The chances of a favorable settlement of the Chinese question diminish as negotiations are prolonged. As China and Russia severally desire a solution, it is hoped that they will make mutual concessions.

Russian Finances.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 3.—It is understood that the programme of the new finance minister comprises considerable reductions of army and navy expenditures in time of peace.

The War in the Far East.

MESHED, Dec. 3.—Russians and Turks are inactive. Turcomans continue raiding the Persian border. Food at Geoktepe is failing.

German State Affairs.

BERLIN, Dec. 3.—A report that the emperor and Bismarck tried to persuade Hohenlohe to assume charge of the foreign affairs is confirmed. Hohenlohe declined on private grounds. Bismarck intends to come to Berlin before Christmas to direct the preparation of measures to be submitted to the bundesrath relating to finance.

Tobacco Factory Burned.

NAPLES, Dec. 1.—A tobacco factory here, burned to-day; loss estimated at several million francs.

Candahar to be Evacuated.

LONDON, Dec. 4.—It is reported that the viceroy of India has ordered the evacuation of Candahar forthwith.

Bernhardt and the Critics.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Bernhardt says that, although very solicitous about her success in New York, she has not read one word of the criticism in the papers. She is unnecessarily alarmed. After the translation of one of ——'s or late exhibitions of English into French, she wouldn't know whether it was a dramatic article or a description of a Michigan sawmill. New York criticisms are usually constructed to exhibit the critic's abilities in juggling with the language, rather than to give the reading public information as to the merits of the play or the acting.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Sterling exchange, prime bankers, long, $4 80; short, $4 82½; good commercial from 1 to ½c lower; documentary, 2 to 1½c lower.

SATURDAY EVENING, Dec. 2, 1880.

Quotations for wheat remain unchanged, $1 47½@1 47.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The past week has been characterized by a good deal of irregularity in many branches of business, yet pretty heavy transactions have been recorded in most of the leading articles of merchandise largely on speculative account in breadstuffs. Ups and downs of wheat have formed the most conspicuous events, while transactions have aggregated very heavily, mostly, however, consisting of future options or "wind." These transactions fix the value of cash wheat, the value of which goes up and down according to the direction of the "wind." At the close prices show a radical decline from the highest points reached.

Barley—At the close was weaker; No. 1 bright Canada, $1 25.

Provisions—Dull and again lower.

Rio Coffee—Dull, reduced ¼, corner.

Refined Sugars—Very fair demand, steady at a decline of ⅛@⅛c from last week's prices.

Teas—In moderate and uncertain demand; supplies offered freely, but have uncertain value; Japans have attracted most attention with sales of 15,000 pkgs.

Foreign Fruits—Moving more briskly, raisins, brisk demand at full prices; layers, $2 10@2 15; London layers, $2 45@2 55; Valencies, 8¾@8¼c; supply on spot and afloat about 60,000 boxes—below average at corresponding date of past three years. Prunes, good demand; prices firmer, 6⅛@6¾c; figs hold at full prices; currents strong, 6⅜@6c; dried apples firmly held.

Hops—Less active but prices very firm.

Turpentine—Dull and unchanged.

Rosins—All grades are quiet.

Petroleum—More active; higher crude, sperm and whale oils unchanged.

Quicksilver—Large demand at 42.

Borax—Firm with fair demand.

Hides—Very dull; buyers and sellers are wide apart in their views.

Leather—Slow and unchanged.

Pig Iron—Dull; steady; No. 1 x, $24 50@$26.

Lead—Very dull; 4¾c for common.

Tin plates—Quiet and irregular.

Nails—Moderate and easy.

Wool—Continues quiet, prices firm, sales, 18,000 lbs, spring California 29@30c.

Dry goods—Market has been quite active in all branches and many makes of cotton goods higher.

NEW YORK FREIGHT MARKET.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—There continues to be a very fair movement of freight at the wharves of California vessels, and both the Big Bonanza and Hamerstown are doing good business. Offerings are rather miscellaneous, including several lots of iron and agricultural goods as well as a class of other freight that will make a good average freight list. They remain very steady, and although they will not likely be higher, yet there is no disposition to cut them except perhaps for some special lot of freight. Tonnage is scarce and held firmly for available ships. However both lines are supplied for the time being and are not coaxing owners.

Isthmus freights are not over active and were it not for special rates given to shippers of canned goods, etc., there would be little doing.

Overland freights hold on very well for the season; Shipments include many goods for the holidays.

London Wool Market.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Seventy-five hundred bales of wool were sold to-day, chiefly New South Wales, Victoria and New Zealand. The market is animated. Good current qualities well sustained; superior irregular.

Charter at San Francisco.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—The Br bk Belle of Avon, 923 tons, wheat to Cork, U. K., £2 17s 6d, prior to arrival.

Chicago Wheat Market.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Wheat, 3c lower; 3⅝; cash; 5⅜; January; 7⅛ February.

Gold and Stock Company's Reports.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.

Receipts—101,760 ctls wheat, including 90,000 aboard ship; 6500 sacks flour; 1500 doz eggs; 1500 sks potatoes.

Charters—Br bk Belle of Avon, wheat, Cork, U. K., 57s 6d, prior to arrival.

Wheat—Market is dull and weak, buyers expecting lower prices; there is very little demand owing to inclement weather; 50 tons choice milling sold today at $1 52½; 30 tons of shipping, off grades, sold to-day at $1 40; quote choice shipping at $1 47½@1 50.

Barley and Oats—The market is quiet but firm; we quote as before.

Dried Fruit—Receipts are large; the market is steady and quiet.

Grain Bags—Sold to-day at 9¼ and 9½ for June delivery.

Columbia River Salmon—Nothing doing; there is no demand for Europe.

Wool—Market is quiet with tendency to more case; we do not feel like quoting lower prices.

Hides—Market has a weak underlone; we quote as before.

Hops—Sellers are holding off; market firm, with prices against buyers; choice nominally, 23@25c.

Eggs—Market is well supplied; there is very little demand; choice Calfornia fresh, 42½@45c.

Butter—The market is quiet with prices against sellers; choice roll, 42½@47½; choice packed, 35@37½; scarce at these prices; choice pickled, 31½@43.

China Rice—Mixed stocks are small; very little demand; quotations unchanged.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

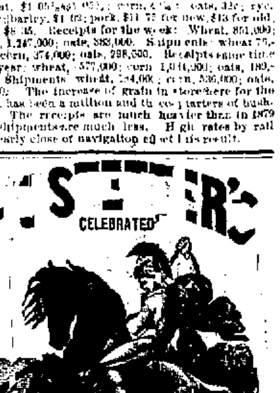
THE CHICAGO GRAIN TRADE.

The Largest Stock on Hand ever Known and Rapidly Filling Up—Rates for the Week, Etc.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The week terminated with a sudden and very heavy decline in grain, which took away the breath of some persistent bulls, who have been predicting remarkable prices—equal to those of last year. There seems to be less reason for these hopes and predictions as the year advances. To-day there were large quantities of grain in sight, perhaps a few hundred thousand bushels more than on the 5th of February of this year, when the stock was 32,000,000 bushels—the largest ever known to be in visible shape in the history of the country. This fact, together with the addition of one cent that grain is coming into grain centers at a rapid rate, so that elevators seem likely to be filled before their time, gives no hope for extremely high prices in the near future. There is much confidence among farmers and dealers, on the other hand, that there is no probability of the extreme low rates of previous years being reached, or at least maintained for any length of time. Elevator room has been enlarged during the fall, so that the elevators of Chicago will now hold over nine million bushels of grain. They still have a capacity of over 8,000,000, but if the present rate of receipts and shipments continues, this capacity will last only about six weeks and then a grain glut will be precipitated, the result of which may prove disastrous to the trade. January option sold during the week at the following range: Wheat, $1 08⅝@1 11⅝; corn, 40⅝@40⅞c; oats, 32⅛@33c; pork, $12 95@13 85; lard, $8 80@8 97½. Closing January prices: Wheat, $1 06⅞c; corn, 40⅜c; oats, 32⅜c; pork, $13 07½@13 10; lard, $8 85@8⅞. Closing cash prices: Wheat, $1 05⅞@1 05½; corn, 4[illegible]; oats, 32c; rye, 97½c; barley, $1 02; pork, $11 75 for new, $13 for old, lard, $8 35. Receipts for the week: Wheat, 851,000; corn, 1,247,000; oats, 383,000. Shipments: wheat 75,000; corn, 374,000; oats, 298,000. Receipts same time last year: wheat, 577,000; corn 1,014,000; oats, 180,000. Shipments: wheat, 154,000; corn, 536,000; oats, 96,000. The increase of grain in store here for the week has been a million and three-quarters of bushels. The receipts are much heavier than in 1879 and shipments are much less. High rates by rail and early close of navigation effect this result.



There is no civilized nation in the western hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective and anti-bilious medicine is not known and appreciated. DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.
